LEOCADIA

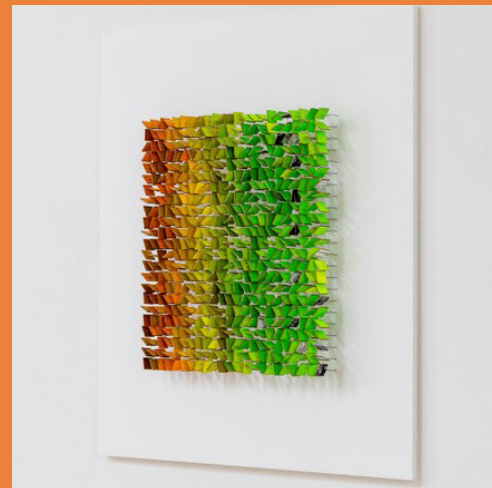

ABOVE AND BELOW THE WAVES

A joint exhibition from our resident artist Jack Wotton & Summer Jane, a welcome new addition to Leocadia. Summer's bold palette knife acrylic paintings of sailing and surfing perfectly capture the energy of wind and waves, while Jack uses pen and ink to create beautifully detailed drawings of the rich wildlife beneath Britain's coastal waters.

DART GALLERY

'HEIDI ARCHER - BEYOND THE SHORE'

A solo show of Heidi's carefully composed paintings, each inspired by the shapes and forms she finds in and around her home in beautiful South Devon.

Typical of her widely collected work, this collection features moonlit rural scenes and abstracted coastal themes rendered in an attractive limited palette.

FOLLOW OUR TRAIL MAP TO SEE ALL THE EXHIBITIONS

You are welcome to visit these galleries for the open evening on the 23rd May - 'Galleries Night' is a bit of a Dartmouth institution. Every gallery will have been transformed in the days leading up to the openings, showing all new work from a mix of artists and makers. Do also visit throughout the period of the shows when it may be a little quieter - most of the exhibitions continue for 2-3 weeks. Each show has an individual theme and look so you are sure to find something different.

You will see paintings, sculpture, ceramics & jewellery.
